From the LONDON CHRONICLE, June 1.

Remarks on the laſt Sermon before the Society for the Propagation of the Goſpel.

SIR,

ALTHO' civil vengeance againſt the Americans hath ſubſided, epiſcopal ambition and vengeance is not ſatiated, but ſtill threatens to kindle again the flame of diſcord amongſt them. Lord Hiſborough might declare ſome time ago that they ſhould not be diſquieted on this behalf; but what can a Lay-Lord anſwer for, when the whole bench of Prelates interfere, and are determined to carry their favorite point? The Biſhop of Oxford does not indeed, like many of the late annual Orators, vilify the Americans in general, as a company of Deiſts or Atheiſts, or a pack of ignorant irreligious tradeſmen; nor does he unchriſtianize and unchurch the numerous preſbyterian and congregational churches of New-England, the moſt orderly and flouriſhing chriſtian ſocieties this day in the world, merely for not having Miniſters epiſcopally appointed. This has been already done to his hand. What his Lordſhip chiefly touches upon is the lamentable ſtate of the Church of England in America for want of Biſhops planted and reſident amongſt its members; and he repreſents it as a thing moſt uncharitable and unjuſt that ſuch ſuperior Church-officers ſhould be denied them.

If the point were ſo clear and demonſtrable as his Lordſhip preſumes it to be, the public may well wonder that government, importuned as it has been for ſo many years, by our churchmen at home, ſhould have been backward in granting ſuch a reaſonable demand.

But it is far otherwiſe. For the few wiſe and good, in high place amongſt us, who are ſincere believers of the goſpel, have always from the beſt principle oppoſed the eſtabliſhment of the Hierarchy on the Continent of America, perſuaded that ſecular power, and high titles of pre-eminency, things utterly unknown to the Apoſtles, may utterly condemned by them, have in all times obſtructed the ſalutary effects of Chriſt's religion.

And Statesmen have been juſtly averſe to ſuch an eſtabliſhment for wiſeſt reaſons of public good; for fear of introducing that imperium in imperio, which has been ſo faral to many Chriſtian countries; or, leſt imperious churchmen ſhould give themſelves airs of being allies of the State, and not ſubjects of it in common with their equal brethren.

His Lordſhip is pleaſed to ſay that the reaſons alledged, and often publiſhed, for eſtabliſhing Biſhops in America, are unanſwerable. For the truth of this aſſertion, I refer the public to "Dr. Chauncy's anſwer to the appeal of his Lordſhip's favourite, Dr. Thomas Bradbury Chandler;" to "a critical commentary on Archbiſhop Secker's letter concerning Biſhops in America;" and to a long and valuable note in Dr. Furneaux's ſixth letter to Mr. Juſtice Blackſtone, ed. ii. publiſhed this very year.

For the ſatisfaction of the public, and in vindication of the laudable reſerve of our civil Governors in not ſeconding the zeal of our Churchmen, I ſhall put down a few of the objections to the eſtabliſhment of Biſhops in America, which have not yet been anſwered.

1. The Non-epiſcopal Churches, both at home, and eſpecially in America, have been juſtly alarmed at the conduct of the ſociety for many years paſt, in their neglecting to make a proper proviſion for the Epiſcopal Churches in the ſouthern provinces of America, & ſpending a very diſproportioned part of their revenue in proſelyting and penſioning Miniſters in the northern provinces, where they were not needed, or were well able to provide themſelves Miniſters; of which laſt the penſioning Dr. Mather Byles, a new convert, three years ago, at the rich town of Boſton, is a moſt flagrant inſtance.

2. Theſe Proſelytes, and the Society's Miſſionaries, preach and publiſh in print, that their buſineſs is to make converts from other ſects to the Church of England.

3. No proper ſecurity, that can be depended upon, (unleſs the promiſes of Churchmen are to be depended upon) that Biſhops, if appointed, ſhall have no degree whatſoever of temporal power; and that they will be contented to ſtand upon the ſame footing, upon which the other American Churches ſtand, of permiſſion and protection, not of authority; of toleration, and not a ſtate-eſtabliſhment; which latter would give them a ſuperiority to other denominations of chriſtians, to which they have not, nor can have any claim.

4. There is no ſort of ſecurity given, that other denominations of chriſtians ſhall not be taxed to ſupport the greater ſtate & pomp of this intended Biſhop, or Biſhops; nay, Dr. Thomas Bradbury Chandler, in his appeal, unguardedly as one would think, threw out a hint, that ſuch a meaſure would be no great hardſhip, if not over-done; and when Dr. Chauncy, in his anſwer, took the man roundly to taſk for ſuch a declaration, Dr. Chandler in his defence, inſtead of retracting it, ſcruples not, with ſome awkwardneſs, but with a great ſhare of impudence to defend it. ATLANTICUS.

Lately published an AMERICAN EDITION complete in three volumes octavo, & may now be purchased from

ROBERT BELL Bookseller,

(At the late Union Library, in Third-street, Philadelphia.)

ROBERTSON's exalted HISTORY of CHARLES the FIFTH EMPEROR of GERMANY; and of all the Kingdoms and States in Europe during his age.—To which is prefixed a view of the progress of society in Europe, from the subversion of the Roman Empire, to the beginning of the sixteenth century.—Confirmed by historical proofs and illustrations.

 Nobleness of sentiment, perspicuity of reasoning, sublimity of style, and elegance of composition; with illustrious instruction, judiciously diffused throughout this literary performance hath established its reputation equal if not superior to the most celebrated modern productions in the historical world.——

Printed PROPOSALS with SPECIMENS, and Conditions annexed, for reprinting the following books by subscription, may be seen at all the great towns in America.

HUME's elegant HISTORY of ENGLAND, in eight volumes octavo, at one dollar each volume, which is only eight dollars for the whole set, although the quarto edition is sold at thirty dollars.

BLACKSTONE's splendid COMMENTARIES on the LAWS of ENGLAND, in four volumes royal octavo, page for page with the British edition, at two dollars each volume, which is only eight dollars for the whole set, although the British edition is sold at twenty six dollars.

To the AMERICAN WORLD.

THE inhabitants of this continent have now an easy and advantageous opportunity of effectually establishing literary manufactures in the British colonies, at moderate prices calculated for this meridian, the establishment of which will absolutely and eventually produce mental improvement, and commercial expansion, with the additional recommendation of positively saving thousands of pounds to and among the inhabitants of the British empire in America. Thus—The importation of one thousand sets of Blackstone's Commentaries, manufactured in Europe, at ten pounds per set, is sending very near ten thousand pounds across the great Atlantic ocean. Whereas—One thousand sets manufactured in America, and sold at the small price of three pounds per set is an actual saving of seven thousand pounds to the purchasers, and the identical three thousand pounds which is laid out for our own manufactures is still retained in the country, being distributed among manufacturers and traders, whose residence upon the continent of course causeth the money to circulate from neighbour to neighbour, and by this circulation in America there is a great probability of its revolving to the very hands from which it originally migrated.—

American Gentlemen or Ladies who, at this juncture, retain any degrees of that ancient and noble, but now almost exploded affection denominated patriotism, and are now pleased to exemplify it by extending with celerity and alacrity their auspicious patronage through the cheap mode of reposing their names and residences (no money expected till the delivery of an equivalent) with any Bookseller or Printer on the continent, as intentional purchasers of any of the literary works now in contemplation to be reprinted by subscription in America—will render an essential service to the community, by encouraging native manufactures—and therefore deserve to be had in grateful remembrance—by their country—by posterity—and by their much obliged, humble servant, the publisher— ROBERT BELL.

SUBSCRIPTIONS for Hume, Blackstone, and Ferguson, are received by said Bell, at the late Union Library, in Third-street, Philadelphia; and by the Booksellers and Printers in America.

Dix, with such as the Honorable Board shall join, be a Committee in behalf of this Province, to make Sale of the Farm aforesaid, at Publick Vendue, to the highest Bidder, at such Time and Place as they may judge best, on public Notice previously given by Advertisements in some of the publick News-Papers; they giving to the Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, two Years Time for the Payment of the Purchase Price of said Farm; he or they giving Bond with sufficient Surety or Sureties for paying the same, with lawful Interest; and the said Petitioner, Harrison Gray, Esq; Treasurer aforesaid, is hereby desir'd and impowered to make and execute to the Purchaser of the said Estate, a good Deed of Conveyance of the same, to hold the same to him and his Heirs, on his receiving the Securities as aforesaid for the Purchase Price thereof. Sent up for Concurrence.

T. CUSHING, Sp'kr.

In Council, June 18th, 1771.

Read and Concurred, and James Russell, Esq; is joined. THO's FLUCKER, Sec'ry.

Consented to, T. HUTCHINSON.

IN Pursuance of the aforegoing Order, the abovementioned Farm at Waltham will be Sold at the House of Mr. Isaac Gleason, Innholder in said Town, at Publick Vendue, on Tuesday the 17th September next, at 3 o'Clock Afternoon——The Farm contains about 100 Acres of good Land, consisting of Mowing, Plowing, Orcharding, Pasturing, and Wood Land; a suitable Proportion of each Sort well watered, with Advantage of turning the same to Profit, a good Dwelling-House almost new with four Rooms on a Floor, and a large Barn, but about ten or twelve Years old standing on the same, well fenced, a considerable Part thereof with good Stone Wall.

RAN-away from John Hunt of Watertown, on Tuesday last, a Negro Man named Prince, a tall streight Fellow, walks with a small hitch; he is about 33 Years old, has been used to Farming Business, is a handy Fellow on most Accounts, talks pretty good English: Had on when he went away, a striped Jacket, a Frock and Trowsers almost new; his Design was to get off in some Vessel so as to go to England, under the Notion if he could get there he should be free. Whoever takes up and secures said Fellow, so that his Master receives him again, shall be well rewarded for their Trouble:—He carried with him a good Pair of Deerskin Breeches. All Masters of Vessels and others are caution'd against carrying off said Servant, as they would avoid the Penalty of the Law. JOHN HUNT.

TO BE LETT,

A genteel House, pleasantly situated at New Boston, near Peter Chardon's Esq; two Rooms and a Kitchen on the lower Floor, a good Pump in the Kitchen, a Garden, pav'd Yard, &c. Enquire of Edes and Gill.

IN the long List of Names lately presented to the Grand Jury, you omitted taking Notice of the Person who was detected in stealing Corn from Doctor Williams of Roxbury, on a Sabbath Day.—Although the Thief conscious of his Guilt, sent a Johannes to hush the Matter up, it is not yet wholly forgot, and the Particulars perhaps will soon be made public.

DETECTOR.

BASSETERRE, (St. Christopher's) July 27.

Extract of a Letter from St. Eustatius, July 20.

"This is to inform you that we have just received advice, that Mr. Blogden's sloop is taken by the Spaniards, with a full load of turtle, and that the turtlers to the number of 32 men, were carried to St. Domingo as slaves. Mr. Thomas Low's schooner was at the same place, and was obliged to cut and run, fearing they should share the same fate."

PHILADELPHIA August 22.

Extract of a Letter from Pittsburgh, August 6.

"Last night a Runner arrived here from fort Chartres; he came from thence the 10th of June, with a party, in 3 battoes, 2 officers, and a recruiting party of soldiers, which he left yesterday morning at the Mingoe Town, about 40 miles down the river. By him we learn that the Kickapoes and Ouiottanons have struck the English, and have killed a man that lived on a place down there, belonging to Mr. Morgan; also another white man and a negro; that they pursued this party, and intended to way-lay them at some creek, but by their diligence they passed the creek two days before the Indians arrived.

NEW-LONDON, August 23.

We hear from Wyoming that one John Dick, an Irish Fellow, with a Party of about 300 Ruffians, the off scouring of two or three Governments, in the Night Time of the 30th of July last, surprised the Connecticut People at Wyoming, by firing on the Centry, one Richard Cook, whom they killed out right; but the Connecticut People rally'd and soon dispersed those Villains.—This is the same John Dick that has been a pretended Constable, this two or three Years, to worry the Connecticut People, with his Colleague or Brother Constable, one James Logan, a Mustee or Mollatto Fellow. These two have been principally improved under the famous (or rather infamous Capt. Ogden) as Civil Officers, perhaps two of the most daring, infamous Rascals that the two Nations of Irish and Negro can afford; and is the same John Dick and James Logan, that some Time past, and since they were in the Commission of Constable broke into the House of one Brink, of Lower-Smithfield, on Delaware River, and after they had ravished his Daughter, they snapped a Pistol at his Wife, by which Surprize she miscarried.—Brink pressed to have Justice against them, and had them bound over; but they were so useful in murdering and robbing of the Connecticut People at Wyoming, they were released, and Justice could not be had against them. And these are the same Villains that last Winter perpetrated the Cruelty on the Wife of one Partial Terry.——A great Evidence of the badness of the Cause, when the vilest of Men and Measures are made Use of, to support it: When at the same Time the Connecticut People are ready and desirous to have it settled in a legal Way, without Bloodshed.

PORTSMOUTH, August 30.

On Monday the 12th Instant, the following remarkable Providence happened at the House of Mr. John Brown's, at Cape Elizabeth, in the County of Cumberland, between four and five o'Clock P. M. As a young Woman was weaving in the Chamber, a Blaze of Fire, in the Form of Lightning, came in at a small Window which was open, & burnt her in one of her Arms, set Fire to the Harness, and the Webb in the Looms, which in an Instant was almost consumed. A young Man who was at Work a small Distance from the House, hearing the young Woman cry out, ran to her Assistance, when with Water, the Fire was happily extinguished, without doing any further Damage. What makes this Dispensation of Providence the more remarkable is, this young Woman being out of Doors, came in and said she saw a terrible Flash of Lightning, which was not seen by any in or about the House, and when she was set on Fire, none of the family saw it but herself. Moreover, the Air was clear, and no appearance of a Thunder Shower, nor any Smell of Sulpher, as is usual, when Buildings are set on Fire by common Lightning.

Last Sunday the 25th Inst. came to Town, Capt. Fishley, late Master of the Ship Newcastle, of this Place, burthen 160 Tons, who on his Passage to Gouldsboro' suddenly sprang a Leak, and in endeavoring for a Harbour, ran on a Ledge of Rocks at the Entrance of Owles Head, a Harbour in Penobscot Bay, by which Means she sunk, the Men were all saved; some of the Rigging will be saved, but the Hull is entirely lost.

SALEM August 27.

Last Sunday Capt. Bradbury Saunders arrived at Cape-Ann from the West-Indies, and, coming to this Town Yesterday to enter his Vessel, we are advised, That about 35 Days ago a Pirate Vessel said to belong to New-York or Philadelphia, was carried into Antigua; when it appeared that 9 of the People, while at Sea, turned Pirates, seized the Captain, and threw him overboard; and then confined 4 others to their Cabin: That a Spaniard, who was on board, taking Advantage of 4 of the Pirates being asleep, beat and split their brains out with a Broad Ax; then went to the Man at Helm, made a Stroke at him, and wounded him in the Arm, which so terrified him that he ran forward & hid himself. The Spaniard afterwards went below, and released the 4 in Confinement; and was then so zealous in the Cause as to be desirous of demolishing the remaining 5 Pirates: He, however, with the Assistance of the 4 released overcame and confined the Miscreants in Irons, by which Means the Vessel was happily carried into Antigua, where Captain Saunders saw the Pirates on Trial.

BOSTON, September 1.

His Excellency the Governor's Commission of Vice-Admiral, came in one of the last Vessels from England.

A Commission is also come appointing Charles Russell, Esq; of Lincoln, to be Register of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, for Massachusetts Bay, New-Hampshire and Rhode-Island.

Tuesday last the Superior Court of Judicature, &c. opened here: Foster Hutchinson, Esq; lately appointed a Justice of that Court, was sworn into Office, and took his Seat accordingly.

Tuesday last Commodore Gambier with his Consort and Family, embarked on board the Salisbury, which, with the Rose and Senegal Men of War, sailed for Halifax last Thursday; from thence they are to proceed for England.

The Canceaux Storeship with Admiral Montagu's Baggage, &c. and the Halifax armed Schooner are arrived here.—They both sailed from England before the Admiral.

Wednesday last arrived here Captain Constant Freeman from Quebec, last from Halifax in seven Days, by whom we learn, that on the 5th ult. a large Schooner from this Place, —— Hammond, Master, with 200 Hogsheads of Salt, besides other Merchandize, was cast away on the great Soil Island, near Cape Sable.—The Vessel and most of the Cargo lost, but the People consisting of the Vessel's Crew and several Passengers all saved. A Fisherman took them off after they had been nine Days on the Island, but happily did not want for Provisions, and carried them to Halifax.

Captain Israel Turner, from Newfoundland, on the 14th ult. in Latt. 43: 0. N. Long. 60: 0: spoke with the Sloop Three Friends, Paul Fanning, Master, from Sheepscut, bound to Glascow, 5 Days out, all well.

We hear from Wesford, that on Friday se'nnight a melancholy Accident happened there, viz. Mr. ——— Wright and a Son of his about 13 Years old, being in a Meadow Mowing, and Mr. Wright having just whet his Son's Scythe, the Lad not observing his Father standing near him, in fetching a Stroke cut his Father in the Left Leg to such a Degree, that he bled to Death in a few Minutes.

Last Friday Afternoon, a Negro Boy belonging to Mr. John Goldsmith, was found drowned at the North Part of this Town.

We hear that John Malcom, Esq; was next to Governor Tryon in command in the Alamance expedition.

We have authority to assure the public that the celebrated Justice M——y, and the infamous MacM——rt, both of whom are now in England, have been introdnced by the Nettleham Baronet to Lord North, as men who have suffered for their steadiness in the support of government, and therefore worthy of his Lordship's notice in the pecuniary way who hath promised the Justice a reward of 1000*l.* and Mac 300*l.* Judas had but thirty pieces of silver, How much more encouragement have men now to be traitors than 1760 years ago! (Spy)

Last Friday se'nnight Samuel Fellows received the discipline of the post at Falmouth Casco Bay for stealing—This same Fellows was the person who not long since fired upon a sheriff when in the execution of his office, was indicted, tried, found guilty, and fined for the same, and had half his fine remitted by his excellency; for what? because ——— ! (Spy)

On Saturday last one John Sennet of Wenham in the Province of New-Hampshire, was committed to his Majesty's Goal in this Town for the Unnatural crime Beastiality, which he committed the same Day on Boston Common in the Face of the Sun, in it's Meridian Lustre, and in the sight of several People. 'Tis reported he was in Liquor at the time of committing the detestable Act. We hear he has a Wife and Children. The owner of the Beast had her immediately put to Death.

Between Eleven and Twelve o'Clock last Saturday Night, the Dwelling House now in the Occupation of Capt. Robert Stone, at New-Boston, was discovered to be on Fire outside; but by timely Assistance, it was soon extinguished. Had the Fire continued to rage but a few Minutes longer before it was discovered, in all Probability the Family would have been consum'd in the Flames. It is not yet discoverd how it was occasioned.

Monday last Mr. JAMES CAZNEAU, Merchant, was married to Miss MARGARETT HALL, Daughter of Mr. WILLIAM HALL, lately deceased, an agreeable young Lady.

Thursday Evening last Mr. TIMOTHY LANGDON, Attorney at Pownalborough, Son of Mr. JOHN LANGDON, was married to Miss SALLY VANS, of this Town.

Yesterday died here, aged 64, Capt. John McKown. His Remains are to be interr'd on Wednesday next.
